Bndgmt No.

Sir,

In submitting herewith a bill for the refund of the arrears of Potti viz Rs 35-12-0 due to Potél Linnieyyada of Hosahalli village Halébid, Holeli, Belur Taluk, I have the honor to state that the Registered Potél Manjayya, the father of the aforesaid Potél died about the year 1888-89 when his eldest son by name Doddeyyada acted for him. He also died in the year 1890-91 leaving no issue.

His

His brother Sannegowda was soon after ordered to take his place having been found Competent. The matter of appointing him as the successor to the deceased Registered Patil Marigowda having been long under correspondence, the amount of Patgi due to him for the years viz 1890-91 to 1892-93 inclusive and that for the periods 1888-89, 1889-90 during which his eldest brother Doddegowda had been acting but had not been able to receive the payment of Patgi owing to sickness, was ordered to be credited to Government a.c. - Counts on June 1893. Sannegowda has since been appointed Registered Patil in 1893-94 and now applies for the payment of Pokji in arrears including what was due to his deceased brother.

2 - Under the above circumstances, I request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the refund of the same. —

3 - The vernacular file ending with the Sub-Division Officers Yadi No: 414 Dated 29th November 1901, is herewith submitted for reference and obliging return. —

I have the honorable,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
